ABOUT THE CODE

As Australia's carbon industry continues to grow and mature, the importance of integrity, transparency, and accountability has never been greater. Market participants are increasingly expected to demonstrate credible practices, manage risk effectively, and build trust with stakeholders across the value chain.

Becoming a Code Signatory signals your organisation's commitment to operating at the highest level of professionalism and ethical conduct.

THE CODE GIVES YOUR BUSINESS A CLEAR,
RECOGNISED WAY TO

---

The Australian Carbon Industry Code of Conduct (the Code) provides a robust, industry-led framework designed to set, monitor, and uphold best practice standards across the carbon market.

WHY LEADING CARBON MARKET PARTICIPANTS ARE JOINING

Becoming a Code Signatory is more than a commitment—it's a strategic advantage.

Win a Competitive Edge

Differentiate your business in a crowded and increasingly scrutinised market. The Code signals that you meet recognised industry best practice—helping you stand out in proposals, partnerships, and negotiations.

Build Instant Credibility

Give clients, investors, and stakeholders confidence from day one. The Code acts as a trusted benchmark, reducing hesitation and accelerating decision-making.

De-Risk Your Business

Minimise exposure to complaints, disputes, and reputational damage. The Code framework supports stronger governance and more consistent client engagement practices.

Stay Ahead of Regulation

Align with evolving regulatory expectations and reduce the risk of non-compliance. Being proactive today positions your business ahead of tomorrow's requirements.

TURN INTEGRITY INTO A BUSINESS ADVANTAGE

The market is shifting toward transparency—and those who lead will win.

By becoming a Code Signatory, you're not just keeping up—you're positioning your business as a trusted leader in a high-integrity carbon market.

WHAT YOU GET

-  A recognised mark of integrity in Australia's carbon market
-  A structured framework to strengthen internal practices
-  Ongoing support to maintain and demonstrate compliance
-  Increased visibility as a trusted market participant
